

UNIVERSAL DESIGN FOR LEARNING (UDL) TO SUPPORT ALL LEARNERS

www.velgtraining.com/events/1174

WEBINAR INFORMATION

PRESENTED BY: JOHN BLAKE

How do we keep learners in training for longer? What can we do to try to meet the diverse needs of our students?

The Universal Design for Learning (UDL) is a supportive outline allowing development of Reasonable Adjustments tools, strategies and resources for learners with diverse needs allowing assistance for everyone in the learning community.

This webinar explores modifications of training resources using UDL principles allowing trainers to meet the diverse cross-section of a learning environment in developing training goals, methods, materials, and assessments.

KEY TOPICS

- Modification of training resources using UDL principles
- Representation of delivery content
- Expression of knowledge
- Engagement of learners' interests

YOUR INCLUSIONS

- Recording of the webinar (access for three months)
- Electronic Statement of Attendance
- Electronic Resources (including PowerPoint)

23
SEP

Wednesday
23 September 2020

Online

11:00am – 12:00pm
(AEST: QLD)

Check your Time Zone

$

Member: $55
Non-member: $85
(incl. GST)

CONTACT

e events@velgtraining.com p 07 3866 0888
w velgtraining.com

1/52 Jeffcott Street
Wavell Heights QLD 4012

All fees stated are inclusive of GST
Minimum numbers are required for webinar to proceed